BUYER NOTE PAD

For Our Brokers:

We know you strive to find the perfect house for each client, so feedback is essential to finding the right property for them.

During showings with clients, do you have them jot down short notes to remember what they liked and disliked about each property so you can review together and discuss?

This page makes tracking feedback easy. Designed for you to print or copy, and provide your client space to take notes about each property - what they like, as well as what they do not. This consolidated page allows you to pay more attention to your clients and their reactions.

Each page has space for 5 properties (including the property address) so that both you and your clients will have a single page quick reference to review together after your showings.
